

Seigneurial Plot of Land

Category	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Level 4
Application of historical knowledge of Seigneurial plots. Connecting character from role-play to features drawn on plot of land.	Land characteristics used reflect limited knowledge of a seigneurial land plot.	Land characteristics used reflect some knowledge of a seigneurial land plot.	Land characteristics used reflect considerable knowledge of a seigneurial land plot.	Land characteristics used reflect thorough knowledge of a seigneurial land plot.
Organization of land characteristics in visual form -location of natural and man-made features on plot of land.	Organization of land characteristics on seigneurial shows a limited understanding of the seigneurial system.	Organization of land characteristics on seigneurial shows some understanding of the seigneurial system.	Organization of land characteristics on seigneurial shows considerable understanding of the seigneurial system.	Organization of land characteristics on seigneurial shows a thorough understanding of the seigneurial system.
Communication of ideas using graphics, colour, and layout. -choice of colours -organization of graphics - quality of graphics	Graphics, colour, and layout of seigneurial plot communicate information with limited clarity.	Graphics, colour, and layout of seigneurial plot communicate information with some clarity.	Graphics, colour, and layout of seigneurial plot communicate information with considerable clarity.	Graphics, colour, and layout of seigneurial plot communicate information with a high degree of clarity.

Comments: