

New France Meet and Greet

Category	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Level 4
Knowledge of personal Character and the character of others. * asking clarifying questions * accurate details * matching character with appropriate dress and mannerisms	Demonstrates limited knowledge of chosen character, and the character of others. More research is needed to make the role believable.	Demonstrates some knowledge of chosen character, and the character of others. More details are needed	Demonstrates considerable knowledge of chosen character the role of others. Details are well researched.	Demonstrates a thorough knowledge of chosen character and the character of others. Details are well researched and exceed the assignment requirements.
Communication: Expression and organization of ideas and information during role play.	In conversation, ideas are organized and expressed with limited effectiveness. More preparation needed to make the character sound believable..	In conversation, ideas are organized and expressed with some effectiveness. More preparation is needed in order for the character to sound believable.	In conversation, ideas are organized and expressed with considerable effectiveness. Conversations demonstrate good preparation.	In conversation, ideas are organized and expressed with a high degree of effectiveness. Conversations show thorough preparation of character.
Thinking Skills: Problem solving and decision making during role play.	While in character, problem solves and makes decisions about questions being asked with limited effectiveness.	While in character, problem solves and makes decisions about the questions being asked with some effectiveness.	While in character, problem solves and makes decisions about the questions being asked with considerable effectiveness.	While in character, problem solves and makes decisions about the questions being asked with a high degree of effectiveness.
Application: Making Connections Transfer of knowledge and skills from written to oral. (props, dress, mannerisms, facts)	Dress, props and mannerisms show limited preparation of character. More connections are needed to make role believable.	Dress, props and mannerisms show some preparation of character. More details are needed to complete the role.	Dress, props and mannerisms show considerable preparation of character. Character is believable.	Dress, props and mannerisms show a thorough preparation of character. Extra details make character extremely realistic.

Comments: _____
