

Name: _____

Date: _____

Canada's Ghosts and Monsters Crossword

Read the articles "Monster Mash-Up" and "Non-Human Neighbours" from the September 2019 issue of Kayak: Canada's History Magazine for Kids and then test your knowledge with this puzzle.

Across

- 2. Roderick Macfarlane noted in his journal more than once that a voice could be heard calling this command for sled dogs.
- 3. The Five Fisherman restaurant in Halifax, NS, used to be a funeral home, where many people who died in the sinking of this grand ship were taken.
- 6. Prime Minister William Lyon Mackenzie King often met with mediums and held these meetings aimed at bringing spirits to talk to him.
- 8. The loup-garou is Quebec's version of this shapeshifting monster.
- 9. Many visitors say they have seen ghostly soldiers at the Plains of Abraham in this city.
- 11. People say that ghosts wander around this rocky spot looking down on St. John's, NL.

Down

- 1. Some people believe this wild, hairy man lives in the rainforests of British Columbia and the Pacific coast of the United States.
- 2. This monster is said to live in Muskrat Lake, ON.
- 3. The kraken is said to have grand eyes and a whole bunch of these super-strong limbs.
- 4. This is one of Canada's few reported sea monsters.
- 5. If you're walking along an Arctic coast in the spring and you hear something knocking under the ice and strange "glubglub" sounds, it could mean that this creature is nearby.
- 7. The ghost of this famous Canadian artist is said to haunt the James Bay Inn in Victoria, BC.
- 10. This monster's name is the same backwards and frontwards.