What's your BIG question about Canadian history?

Research your topic, answer your BIG question, and share your findings through Heritage Fairs.

Go for a topic that feels meaningful to you.

Craft an open-ended question using the historical thinking concepts.

Pick a question that will encourage you to explore many different sources.

Your question should challenge you to think and form your own ideas – it's all about your interpretation of the evidence!
